

DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1892.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 15, 1906.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

ONE BY EUGENE FIELD.

A scarce and little known Eugene Field item is included in the sale held June 8th in Chicago. It appears in "The Journalist, a Pictorial Souvenir, 1884-1887," which is unknown to the majority of the Field collectors and admirers. The title is "The Editor's Trousers: A Satirical Poem." For the benefit of sundry scrapbooks it is repeated here:

THE EDITOR'S TROUSERS.

Two ragged holes beam sadly out
Below the suburbs of his vest—
Like guardian angels of unrest,
They follow him fore'er about.
No picture could the people scan
With half the greediness and intent
That on the dual holes are bent—
The trade-marks of an honest man!

How came those hungry holes there?

Ah, ask the hours of toil and pain:
The pencil, lamp, the worn cane,
The weary, rusty office chair!
Why, everything is new at first
And made to stem the tide of life,
But all must yield at last to strife,
And even pants at length will burst.

And so, honest holes! We meet.

You with a proud and kindly grace,
Good welcome to the resting place,
Thrice welcome to the royal seat!—
In all the turmoil, all the strife,
There are no teachers half so true
To teach us what we learn from you—
The stern realities of life.

Mrs. B. W. Burdett, Mrs. I. M. Mills, Mrs. P. G. Smoot, Mrs. Harry H. Barkley, Mrs. John C. Everett, Mrs. Mary Marsh, Mrs. Mary Martin, Mrs. O. H. P. Thomas, Misses Violet Buckingham, Bessie Martin and Catherine Marsh are at Mill Creek today attending the C. W. B. M. Convention of the Christian Church.

The Ricketts homestead in Sutton street for sale by John Duley.

N. J. Sidwell has listed his farm of 72 acres with John Duley for sale.

Mr. S. M. Woodward had an assessment on property reduced from $600 to $300.

Residents in West Fourth street are complaining of being greatly annoyed at night by the barking and howling of worthless cur dogs in that vicinity. Now that there is a state tax of $1 in addition to the city license a few dollars might be gathered in for county purposes; otherwise, shoot the dog.

When looking for a going-away gift don't fail to see the elegant line of goods I am showing, including every novelty known in the jeweler's art—combs, chains, pins for every use, bracelets, etc.—articles in more favor this year than ever before. The assortment is not finer in the big cities.

P. J. MURPHY, Jeweler.

United States Senator James B. McCreary will address the terrified at the Germantown Fair next Friday week. So far as the nomination for the Senatorship—which is equivalent to an election—is concerned, the Senator is running next to the rail, and judging from Mason county pools, will go under the wire a full length ahead of the ambitious young Governor.

Sailor Brown has two watermelon patches in Forest avenue, and Monday while absent from the lower one attending to the needs of the other, a gang of bad boys raided the patch and did havoc among his vines and melons. He has provided himself with a shotgun and should one of the depredators come limping home one of these days the parents will know from whence he came and the cause of his limp.

Up to now our Cut-Price Sale was mainly on light-weight clothing. That the sale was a success, both to our patrons and us, is evidenced that we have cleaned up most of our summer stock. The major part of Suits on hand now are medium heavy weights, bought for early spring and fall. There are about 225 Men's Suits in the lot. They consist of Gray Scotch Mixtures, Fancy and Plain Worsteds and quite a number of strictly Pure Wool Cassimeres. They are all ranged together on four tables.

ON FRIDAY MORNING, THE 17th, they will be put on sale at just

ONE-HALF OF THE REGULAR PRICE.

We need both the room and the money. Spot Cash will be the only terms. Money returned if not pleased with your purchase. We have not quite made up our mind how long we will continue the Half-Price Sale. BETTER COME SOON.

John Duley is selling farms in the Minerva Precinct today.

Mr. Rufus Robinson, aged 70, of Charleston Bottom, has the whooping-cough.

Call at John Duley's office tomorrow and let him tell you of some bargains in farms.

In the County Court yesterday W. S. Hawn, Auditor's Agent, filed an agreed judgment for omitted taxes against Omar Dodson, D. Perrine and W. J. Rees.

Women's White Mohair Skirts.

Not many left—women were quick to appreciate such values. Carefully stitched, well hung, gracefully flared, made-to-fit 7½ Skirts for $4.95 are eagerly bought of course. If you want to count yourself among the fortunate come at once.

Madras Curtains At Little Prices.

Any woman who has a window or door to drape should welcome this news. The Curtains are cream Madras with stripes in different colors—blue, pink, red or green. Perfect in every detail but now there is only one pair of a kind so you can buy at these prices:

$1½, $2 Curtains 98c.
$3 to $5 Curtains $1.98.

25c STOCKINGS FOR WOMEN.

There are all kinds of 25c Stockings. That is stockings that sell for 25c. It's a popular price and anything is accepted in a stocking that bears it, by many people, but not by us. We have secured a better-than-the-ordinary-stocking to sell for a quarter. Buy a pair to prove our assertion.

WHITE WAISTS. SILK

Been going out pretty fast, these handsome waists, so you had better come promptly if you want to share their beauty and low price. Made of fine quality China Silk, elaborately trimmed.

$5 and $6 Waists $2.98.

$3½ and $4 Waists $1.98.

These are values that will command recognition on the instant.

50c KIMONAS, 2 for 75c.

Timely bargains bring true economy. This is not a temptation to spend money for things you don't need. Every body wants cool comfortable clothing now and this chance of two pretty lawn kimonas for almost the price of one is most opportune.

COUNTY COURT BUSY

Getting Things Ready For the Local Option Election at Mayslick

It seems that THE LEDGER was off in its local article on the quietude of the city, especially Court street, Monday, for as a matter of fact while the street and offices on same wore a deserted look, upstairs in the Courthouse the County Judge and half a dozen lawyers were as busy as bees trying the numerous back tax cases and preparing the orders for the Local Option Election to be held next month in the town of Mayslick and in Magisterial District No. 6, embracing the towns of Mayslick and Sardis.

Some fine legal arguments and skillful expostulations of abstract law were heard by the few bystanders, and Monday, after all, was a busy day in Court street.

County Court is still grinding and the lawyers still pondering on the back tax cases, while the legal atmosphere is saturated with precedents that make confusion more confounded.

The Value of the Ohio Improved

When John Fitch, a native of Connecticut and an emigrant to Kentucky, in 1780 stood upon the banks of the Ohio, and, with far-seeing vision, contemplated the limitless capacities of the stream, it is no marvel that he said: "A great and a good God surely has not provided such a country and such a river without giving to man the power of reducing them to his use. And that can be done only by some newly invented mode of navigation, enabling him to control the currents."

THE OHIO VALLEY TODAY.

What John Fitch saw in 1780 has been most wonderfully fulfilled today. With the improvement of the Ohio completed to a nine-foot stage from Pittsburgh to Cairo, the tonnage of the great stream will as far exceed the tonnage of today as the present tonnage exceeds the tonnage of 1794, when, in January of the year, the first packet line was established at Cincinnati and put in the Pittsburgh trade—four packets being employed, each provided with port holes (for protection against hostile Indians), each having two swivels on its deck, and each making the round trip in four weeks. Of the products of the Ohio Valley, it was well said in a recent comprehensive article contributed to the June Inter-Nation Magazine, Boston, by Honorable B. G. Humphreys of Mississippi, and one of the Committee on Rivers and Harbors, in speaking of the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers, that:

"There is no such valley under Heaven as that which is actually, not theoretically, drained by these great rivers. Taking no account of the Missouri Valley and not including, as is sometimes done, everything between the Alleghenies and the Rockies, but limiting our calculations to the actual drainage basin of the Mississippi and the Ohio Rivers, we have a valley which produces annually in the two items of agriculture and manufactures alone $5,000,000,000. Can you comprehend these figures? Five billion dollars would pay the expenditures of both War and Navy Departments from 1861 to 1865, inclusive. There would then be left enough to wipe out the National debt, pay the expenses of the Spanish War and have enough remaining to reimburse the Federal Treasury for every dollar spent on all our harbors and rivers since the Declaration of Independence was signed."

IN WHICH ALL ARE INTERESTED.

As Congressman Humphreys excludes consideration of the Missouri Valley—and a great valley it is—consideration of the products of the valleys of the Allegheny, the Monongahela, the Kanawha, the Muskingum, the Scioto, the Wabash, the Green, the Tennessee and the Cumberland, with all other affluents of the Ohio, are to be excluded in estimating the portion of the $5,000,000,000 contributed by the Ohio Valley. It is further to be considered in making up that estimate, that Mr. Humphreys excludes the tremendously large interests of mining and lumber and includes only manufacturing and agricultural products. With, or even without, estimating the value of the coal and timber products of the Ohio Valley, it would be a safe estimate to assert that of the $5,000,000,000 the Ohio Valley contributed fully one-half.

But all is not involved in estimates, nor in the present productions of the Ohio Valley, in which every community and every miner, manufacturer, farmer, is interested. It is much more in the value of the products of the Ohio Valley as they would be with a continuous nine-foot stage from Pittsburgh to Cairo. With that stage of navigation the total value of the products of the valley of the Ohio would closely approximate, if they would not exceed, the present combined values of the products of the valleys of the Ohio and the Mississippi, their affluent valleys not being taken into consideration. As was testified by Mr. Charles A. Pillsbury of Minneapolis before a committee of the Senate: "We consider the presence of the Mississippi River, and the fact that it is kept in navigable condition, the great regulator of railway rates; and that the benefits should not be measured by the tonnage as by the possibility of sending the freight by water."

Commenting on that answer, Mr. Humphreys thus aptly says: "That is the crux of the whole matter. It is the capacity of the stream to bear tonnage, and not the actual tonnage borne, which is a correct test of its usefulness." The testimony of Mr. Pillsbury, possibly the largest manufacturer of flour in the whole world, is sufficiently interesting to warrant another extract from it, and it is one that will appeal directly to every manufacturer, miner, farmer and shipper in the entire Ohio Valley—and it is brief and to the point. Senator Nelson asked two questions, as follows:

RAILWAYS CANNOT COMPETE.

Senator Nelson: "And the Mississippi river being there, keeps the rates down?"

Mr. Pillsbury: "The fact of the Mississippi River being there prevents them from making any combination to maintain excessive rates. The necessity is not so much the amount carried by the steamers as the amount that can be carried."

Senator Nelson: "Approximately, what is the relative cost of transporting freight from your city by rail and by river?"

Mr. Pillsbury: "During the season of open navigation, the railways cannot compete, when you take the Great Lakes into account, if you mean that. If you mean all water communications, they absolutely can't compete—don't."

The lesson of rate regulation and of competition is completely put by Mr. Pillsbury. The railways cannot and do not compete with waterways which, as Mr. Pillsbury said of the Mississippi, are "kept in a navigable condition."

TWO THINGS ARE CERTAIN.

When the Rivers and Harbors Appropriation Bill was before the House at its last session, Mr. Humphreys, in the course of his remarks, said: "One thing is certain, and we can all agree on that—if we are to meet the products of foreign fields, of foreign forges and of foreign mines in the open markets of the world, and sell our products in fair competition with them, we must not and we cannot go into the fight hampered and handicapped by unjust, unreasonable or extortionate freight charges."

The other certainty is that with the Ohio river improved to a nine-foot stage the year round, there would be neither handicapping nor hampering of the magnificent products that would come to the shores of the Ohio seeking—and finding—a cheap, a safe and a convenient means of transportation, in which neither excessive nor extortionate charges would play a part. The improved Ohio would be a freight rate regulator of the utmost potency, which could not be overcome. To that end the Ohio Valley Improvement Association has labored and is laboring in the full confidence of ultimate success, with freight rate relief to the tremendously important interests of the Ohio Valley and with a magnificent development of its limitless resources.

Mr. Bryan's itinerary upon reaching the United States will be as follows: New York, August 30; New Haven and Bridgeport, Conn., August 31; Jersey City, N. J., September 1; Chicago, September 4; Lincoln, Neb., September 5; St. Louis, September 11; Louisville, September 12, and Cincinnati, September 13, stopping at Kansas City on his way home.

Gage marks 17.8 and rising.

August, 1876, there was a flood in the Ohio river.

The boats are carrying crowds up the Green river to Mammoth Cave.

There will soon be too much water in the Ohio for mussel grabbers and gasoline boats.

Shooting squirrels is one of the pastimes of passengers on the Green river boats along shore.

All towboats laid up along shore between here and Pittsburgh will get home on the present rise.

The Cricket dropped a barge of coal at the ice piers yesterday for the Maysville and Cincinnati packet.

The Pittsburgh coal fleet, with Sam Brown as flagship, began passing here yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

With millions of bushels of coal still in the Pittsburgh harbor the recent unexpected rise in the rivers above has disappeared. The late shipment of coal on the present rise was made Sunday, when the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company sent Southward 500,000 to 1,000,000 bushels. From Saturday morning until Sunday morning about 6,000,000 bushels of coal were sent down the Ohio. Rivermen have not yet ceased marveling at this feat. A navigable stage in the river is rarely looked for in August and a coalboat stage such as was reached Saturday is almost unprecedented. Reports from up-river points hold out little hope of another rise. The heavy rains in the mountains, which furnished the coalboat stage of water, have ceased, and indications are that another dry spell has set in.

WAR OF BALLOONS

At Cincinnati's Great Industrial Show

"The Blue Moon" and "Fighting the Flames" Spectacles of Fall Festival

CINCINNATI, O., August 15.—Year ago Cincinnati was given the name "The Mother of Expositions." Those industrial shows of old pale in comparison with the Fall Festivals held on the sites of earlier triumphs of National prominence. The Festival of 1906—the first in three years—will eclipse in every way all its predecessors. On the night of the opening, August 25, a war of balloons will afford an aerial spectacle of a magnitude never before attempted. Twenty thousand 14-foot paper balloons will be sent up all over Cincinnati at a given signal, and while dynamite bombs hurled high are exploding, sending their thunderous echoes for miles around, the entire sky will be covered with the flaming voyagers of the air. Balloon will collide with balloon and the sight will be one of unique novelty.

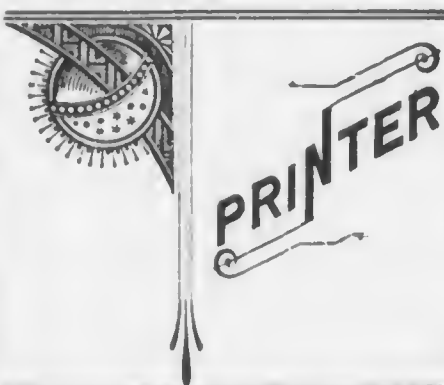

The Fall Festival is to last four weeks and has been well defined as a "World's Fair in Tabloid Form." The Washington Park shows are grouped around the fountain and will be on the order of the famous "Pike" at St. Louis and include "The Hippodrome," patterned after New York's big amusement palace the Temple of Art, Hale's Tours, House of Nonsense and Palace of Aladdin. The Backwoods Inn is a place of refreshment and vaudeville combined. Park has her Chateau le Mort, and the Fall Festival House of Death is a miniature of one of the most famous cafes in the world. The service will be on coffee and under the glass at the head of each black casket will blink the red eyes of a grinning skull. The chairs will be made of whitened bones.

These shows are merely incidental to great industrial features and a Government Exhibit worth talking about. A Music Hall, "The Blue Moon," staged by the Shuberts through the courtesy of the Black Opera House Company of Cincinnati, lessees of the Lyric Theater will be given its first American presentation. This is the musical spectacular that enthralled London for over a year. It cost $75,000 to place "The Blue Moon" in American atmosphere. James T. Powers is the leading comedian of the far east and 250 people take part. "Fighting the Flames"—the show which has made such tremendous hits at Luna Park, Coney Island, and at the White City, in Chicago—will be put on back of the Exposition Building, the scene of "Merry Polo's" success. Claude Hagen, who originated the spectacle of fire fighting, is in charge of the Cincinnati construction.

The Fall Festival is Cincinnati's greatest amusement and industrial offering to the country, and preparations are now under way to entertain hundreds of thousands of visitors from August 25 to September 22. Special round-trip rates to Cincinnati have been made by all the railroads—an official ruling that stamps the importance of the Fall Festival as a National event.

CONFIRMED PROOF.

Residents of Maysville Cannot Doubt What Has Been Twice Proved.

In gratitude for complete relief from aches and pains of had backs—from distressing kidney ills—thousands have publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. Residents of Maysville, who so testified years ago, now say their cures were permanent. This testimony doubly proves the worth of Doan's Kidney Pills to Maysville kidney sufferers.

A. W. McClanahan, of A. W. and B. P. McClanahan, grocers, at 121 Second street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I can endorse Doan's Kidney Pills more heartily today than I did five years ago when I told the Maysville people that this medicine had cured me of severe kidney trouble and backache that had bothered me more or less for twenty years and seemed to be growing worse and worse all the time. I repeat that I can more confidently recommend Doan's Kidney Pills today than I did in that testimonial because my cure has been permanent and I have had no kidney trouble for nearly five years. As proof that I am a firm believer in Doan's Kidney Pills I will be only too pleased to reiterate the above to anyone who may inquire. I got the remedy at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
